Thank you Missy Stagers for helping us yet again.

I met Missy Stagers about 13 years ago when I was single and buying my first home, she was recommended to me by a mutual Friend to help me out on the close of my newly build house that was not finished. She met me at the property she stated that she could not become my real estate agent because I had already entered into the contract with the home builder without an agent. She helped me out anyway took time out of her busy schedule to help me and gave me great advice. I never forgot her kindness and help. I learned a very valuable lesson that day when you buy and or sell a home you want someone you can trust, Missy is that kind of person who helps others and does not expect anything in return. I also knew when I was ready to sell and buy again I would definitely look her up. I did look her up and hired her to be my husband's and my real estate agent. We were very happy with everything she did to sell our home for a great price in these difficult economic times and to help us buy a home for a great price. She is well respected by everyone and a woman of her word she knows about all the current trends and how to stage a home to sale quickly. She is well respected and top rated in the real estate business; she is absolutely the best at what she does and gets the job done to the customer's satisfaction. We are so blessed to know a real estate person like Missy she makes the stressful time of buying and selling wonderful and a happy experience. We thank her for helping my family yet again and want everyone to know if you really want to get the job done right with grace and excellences call our real estate angel Missy Stagers and her wonderful team. Thanks again Missy for helping the Holgado's find a great home to grow our family in and getting the job done with excellences... Missy is the best!
